

“I Have a Dream”[®] Foundation-Oregon Fulfilling Dreams Holiday Supply Drive

Hosting a Holiday Supply Drive at your office or company for “I Have a Dream”[®] Foundation-Oregon is an easy way for you to contribute to our mission of building community and transforming the lives of at-risk youth. Your help will provide our program with the opportunity to expand our after school and summer programs.

As a host you will:

- Encourage your employees to donate school and art supplies, gift certificates and college preparation materials.
- Co-coordinate at least one presentation about “I Have a Dream”[®] Foundation-Oregon and the supply drive.
- Stock promotional and informational materials at Supply Drive collection boxes at your office and/or company.
- Arrange drop-off and pick-up days with our Volunteer Coordinator.

“I Have a Dream”[®] Foundation-Oregon will:

- Provide you with promotional and informational materials about our organization and needs.
- Drop off Supply Drive collection boxes and pick them up.
- Co-coordinate at least one presentation with you.
- Help you have a successful event that employees feel good about.

Timeline

- September – Discuss this opportunity with the working teams and resource groups within your office and/or company.
- October – Meet with our Volunteer Coordinator to discuss details, questions and general information.
- November– Finalize locations of collection boxes, number of boxes needed, and dates of collection box and promotional material drop off.
- December – Encourage co-workers to donate and co-host a presentation about “I Have a Dream”[®] Foundation-Oregon. Make arrangements for our Volunteer Coordinator to pick-up collection boxes.
